Alternative routes and lines for LRT service

A BRIEF PAUSE, FOR KEEPING THE JOURNEY ON TRACK!

As part of the preparation for extending the Red Line to Hadassah and Neveh Yakov, the Light Rail operations will be suspended temporarily for safety and system checks.

During the Light Rail Service Suspension, alternative bus services will be operated. Alternative service for passengers will be provided mainly as: Adding temporary alternate lines, Reinforcing existing lines, and extending regular lines operating routinely in the southwest part of the city.

The intercity and suburban service to Jerusalem will operate as usual.

Alternative bus lines

- Lines 500 and 501 from Givat Hamivtar Station, via HaNevi'im and Agripas Streets, to the Central Bus Station and back (the lines will not pass through the Municipality)
- Line 502 from the Central Bus Station to the Municipality (Shivtei Israel), via Agripas, HaNevi'im, King George and Agron streets and back via HaNevi'im and Agripas streets
- Line 503 from Givat Hamivtar station to the Municipality (Shivtei Israel) and back

Increasing the frequency of bus lines in the north of the city

- Pisgat Ze'ev lines: 541, 540, 66, 65, 49, 25, 22
- Beit Hanina and Shu'afat 274

Extension of Lines 29, 27, 24, 23, 21, 20 from the southwest of the city to the Central Bus Station area

- In the direction of the Central Bus Station:
 - › Extension of the lines via Herzl Boulevard, to Jaffa Street (opposite the Central Bus Station)

and Sha'are Zedek Street (near the Mahane Yehuda Market)

In the direction of Mt. Herzl:

- › New alighting station — at the intersection of Jaffa and Sha'are Tzedek streets, near the Mahane Yehuda Market
- › Pick-up on Jaffa Street — next to the Central Bus Station (Station A2)
- › The route of the lines — via Herzl Boulevard and the streets of Ish Shalom and Yefe Nof to Mount Herzl, continuing on the regular route
- › For passengers to Denya Square — Line 23 in the direction of Kiryat HaYovel, via Beit HaKerem Street

Please note that during this period:

- › Line 21 will not serve the Ramat Beit HaKerem neighborhood. In addition, the line will begin and end its route on Mt. Herzl
- › Line 23 will not serve Tora Va'Avoda and HaPisga streets

Hadassah – Neve Yaakov, We are almost there!
